

Human Resources (HR) Policy

Company: TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Policy Owner: Human Resources Department

Effective Date: 25 August 2026

Version: 1.0

1. Purpose

The purpose of this HR Policy is to establish clear and fair guidelines for employees of TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. It defines expectations regarding employment, attendance, leave, performance, workplace behavior, compensation, employee development, and separation.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all permanent employees, temporary employees, interns, trainees, contractors, and other personnel working for or representing TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

3. Recruitment and Selection

- Recruitment shall be based on qualifications, skills, experience, and organizational requirements.
- The company shall follow a fair and consistent recruitment process.
- Candidates may be required to participate in interviews, technical assessments, background verification, and reference checks.
- Employees must provide accurate information during recruitment.
- Providing false information may result in termination of employment.

4. Employment and Onboarding

Every new employee shall receive:

- Appointment or employment documentation.
- Job responsibilities and reporting structure.
- Company policies and code of conduct.
- Access to required systems and resources.
- An introduction to company procedures and security requirements.

Employees are expected to complete required onboarding activities within the specified period.

5. Working Hours and Attendance

- Employees must follow their assigned working schedule.

- Employees are expected to report to work on time.
- Employees working remotely must remain available during agreed working hours.
- Any planned absence must be communicated to the reporting manager and HR.
- Repeated unauthorized absence or late attendance may result in disciplinary action.

6. Leave Policy

Employees may receive leave according to their employment terms and applicable company rules.

Types of leave may include:

- Casual Leave
- Sick Leave
- Earned/Annual Leave
- Public Holidays
- Maternity/Paternity Leave where applicable
- Other legally applicable leave

Employees should submit leave requests through the company's designated HR system or process.

Emergency leave should be communicated to the manager as soon as reasonably possible.

7. Remote and Hybrid Work

Where remote or hybrid work is approved:

- Employees must maintain professional working conditions.
- Employees must remain reachable during working hours.
- Company information must be protected from unauthorized access.
- Employees must use approved company systems for business activities.
- Work performance and deliverables remain the employee's responsibility.

8. Compensation and Benefits

Employees shall receive compensation according to their employment agreement.

Salary information should be treated as confidential.

Eligible employees may receive benefits according to company policy and applicable law.

9. Performance Management

Employee performance may be evaluated periodically based on:

- Quality of work
- Productivity
- Technical skills
- Communication
- Teamwork
- Meeting deadlines
- Problem-solving
- Customer satisfaction
- Compliance with company policies

Performance reviews may result in recognition, development plans, promotions, or corrective actions.

10. Training and Development

TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd. encourages continuous employee development.

Employees may receive training in:

- Technical skills
- Software and tools
- Security awareness
- Communication
- Leadership
- Project management
- Industry knowledge

Employees are expected to complete mandatory training assigned to them.

11. Workplace Conduct

Employees must:

- Treat colleagues respectfully.
- Communicate professionally.
- Follow company procedures.
- Protect company property.
- Maintain confidentiality.
- Avoid conflicts of interest.
- Follow applicable laws and regulations.

Harassment, discrimination, bullying, threats, violence, or inappropriate workplace behavior will not be tolerated.

12. Anti-Harassment

The company is committed to maintaining a professional and respectful workplace.

Employees can report inappropriate behavior to HR or an appropriate designated authority.

Reports will be handled confidentially to the extent reasonably possible and investigated according to company procedures.

13. Confidentiality

Employees may have access to confidential information including:

- Customer information
- Employee information
- Source code
- Business plans
- Financial information
- Product information
- Credentials
- Internal documentation

Employees must not disclose confidential information to unauthorized individuals.

Confidentiality obligations may continue after employment ends.

14. Conflict of Interest

Employees must disclose situations where personal interests could conflict with company interests.

Examples include:

- Working for a direct competitor.
- Using company resources for personal business.
- Accepting inappropriate benefits from vendors.
- Making business decisions involving close personal relationships.

15. Company Property

Company property must be used responsibly.

This includes:

- Laptops
- Mobile devices
- Software licenses
- Access cards
- Documents
- Cloud accounts
- Network resources

Company property must be returned when employment ends.

16. Grievance Procedure

Employees who have workplace concerns should first contact their reporting manager or HR.

If the issue cannot be resolved, it may be escalated to senior management according to the company's grievance process.

17. Disciplinary Action

Violations of company policies may result in:

1. Verbal warning
2. Written warning
3. Performance improvement plan
4. Suspension or restriction of privileges where appropriate
5. Termination of employment
6. Legal action where applicable

The action taken will depend on the seriousness and circumstances of the violation.

18. Resignation and Separation

Employees wishing to resign must provide notice according to their employment agreement.

During the separation process, employees must:

- Complete knowledge transfer.
- Return company property.
- Remove personal data where appropriate.
- Complete required exit procedures.
- Maintain confidentiality.

19. Policy Review

HR shall periodically review this policy and update it when required due to organizational, operational, or legal changes.

Approved By: Management, TechNova Solutions Pvt. Ltd.